P R E F A C E .

THE MS. from which this book has been printed is the Diary of Mr. Justice Rokeby. It is bound in leather, and the date 1688 is stamped on the back, as are also the letters AA under the date. These letters are evident proof of the existence at one time of more MSS. of this eminent Judge. It contains ninety-four leaves, the numbering of which commences on the third leaf. The two metal clasps which once kept it closed have been broken off. On the front cover the date 1 Mar., 1688, and the signature, Thomas Rokeby, are written, as is also the entry as given p. 1.

Thomas Rokeby, the writer of this MS., was the second son of Thomas Rokeby, of Sandal, Yorkshire, and a memoir of him, containing his journal, &c., will be found printed in the publication of the Surtees Society for 1861, ably edited by Canon Raine. He was born in 1631 or 1632. On 20th June, 1646, he was admitted a pensioner at Catherine Hall, Cambridge. In January, 1649-50, he became a B.A. At Christmas, 1650, he was made a Fellow of his College. The following extract from the Book of Admissions of Gray's Inn, vol. II., p. 1,051, shows the date at which he entered that Society:—

Decimo septimo die Maii, 1650.

Sol. 3 . 6 . 8. Thomas Rokeby filius secundus Thomæ Rokeby de Burnby in Coñi York Armiğ Admisš est in societatem

THO: BRICKENDEN.

After he was called to the bar he seems to have passed a considerable portion of each year in chambers at Gray's Inn. His country residence when term was over was at York. He married Ursula, daughter of James Danby, of Newbuilding, Thirsk. He was the principal adviser of the Non-conformists in the North of England and took a leading part in the movement in favour of the Prince of Orange.

The entries made on the cover, the first leaf, and the first twenty pages were made before he was raised to the Bench, which took place on the 8th of May, 1689,* when he was placed in the Common Pleas, whence he was removed, 25th October, 1695,† to the King's Bench, where he remained till his death on 26th November, 1699. He was buried at Sandal, near Doncaster.

Full particulars as to his family, &c., have already been printed in the publication of the Surtees Society which has been before referred to.

The 1st circuit after I was a Judge was summer 1689: & I was to have gone y<sup>e</sup> Midland Circuit wth Baron Nevile, but was Stayed in Towne to attend y<sup>e</sup> Parliam<sup>t</sup>:

The times were thus:—

Tuesday July 9, att Northampton.
friday July 12, att Okeham.
Monday July 15, att Lincolne.
Thursday July 18, att Nottingham.
Monday July 22, att Derby.
Wednesday July 24, att Leicester.
Saturday July 27, att Coventry.
eodem die att Warwick.

The Judges hired a Coach betwixt them, y<sup>e</sup> costs of w<sup>ch</sup> & housekeeping, for my share thereof above all profits w<sup>ch</sup> came in throughout y<sup>e</sup> circuit was about 17 li.

The 2<sup>d</sup> circuit Lent 16 $\frac{8}{9}$  $\frac{0}{0}$  Oxfordshire, I & Justice Eyre were to goe y<sup>t</sup> circuit y<sup>e</sup> times were Monday Mar: 3: Reading for Berkshire.

Wednesday Mar: 5: Oxford.

Saturday Mar: 8: Worcester.

Wednesday Mar: 12: Stafford.

Saturday Mar: 15: Salop.

Friday Mar: 21: Hereford.

Wednesday Mar: 26: Monmouth.

Saturday Mar: 29: Gloucester.

I went onely to Reading & Oxford, & then y<sup>e</sup> King's pleasure was signified to me to returne to London, & Just: Eyre went y<sup>e</sup> rest of y<sup>e</sup> circuit alone, we had hired a Coach betwixt us, but Just: Eyre refusing to take it along wth him, I came home in it, & after y<sup>e</sup> circuit was over, y<sup>e</sup> acc<sup>ts</sup> were stated, & Just Eyre demanded that I should pay halfe of y<sup>e</sup> charges of his own Saddle horse, & of his clerk of y<sup>e</sup> chamber, & of his groome and Sumpter, I thought it was not reasonable, but upon his pposal, I referred it to Just: Powell & Just: Ventriss who Judged it ag<sup>t</sup> me: & I was out of purse this circuit: 19 li: & above.

The Lord Ch: Just: Holt & my selfe went y<sup>e</sup> home circuit, it was appointed att 1st to begin in July about y<sup>e</sup> usuall time af<sup>tr</sup> y<sup>e</sup> terme, & soe were all y<sup>e</sup> oth<sup>r</sup> circuits, & accordingly were set up in y<sup>e</sup> Hall Westm<sup>r</sup> & published in y<sup>e</sup> Gazetts; but y<sup>e</sup> French fleet comeing upon y<sup>e</sup>

English coasts, y<sup>e</sup> Queen by proclamation, 19 July 90, published an alteration of y<sup>e</sup> Circuits by wh<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>e</sup> dayes for y<sup>e</sup> home circuit were Hertf. Monday 1st Sept. att Hertford.

Essex Wednesday 3 Sept. att Chelmsford.

Surry Monday 8 Sept. att Kingston upon Thames.

Sussex Thursday 11 Sept. att Horsham.

Kent Tuesday 16 Sept. att Maidston.

I hired two horses & a Coach this circuit & put my own horses to y<sup>e</sup> wheele, & my charges in this circuit was above 25 li.

When y<sup>e</sup> Judges chose their circuits in Hillary Terme there were 4 Judges chose their own Country circuits, viz. L<sup>d</sup> Ch J. Pollexfen, Ld Ch. Baron Atkins, Baron Lechmere & Just Ventris this made a great noise, & y<sup>e</sup> Com<sup>rs</sup> of the Great Seale tooke this occasion to find fault wth y<sup>e</sup> Judges choice, desiring by it (as y<sup>e</sup> Judges suspected) that they might have y<sup>e</sup> alteration of y<sup>e</sup> circuits att their pleasure, & this was supposed to be done principally by y<sup>e</sup> Ld Com<sup>r</sup> Trevor who was now made a Privy Councillor.

34   Lent 1690: 4th circuit.

This time my L<sup>d</sup> Ch: Just: Holt & my selfe went y<sup>e</sup> Norfolk circuit, y<sup>e</sup> days for w<sup>ch</sup> were Dorchester: 13 Mar. 9 $\frac{3}{4}$ .

*Tho: Cooper, Esq., Sheriff.

Tho: Cooper, under-sheriff.

We had a very plentiful & well orderd diñer given us by y<sup>e</sup> Sheriff att Blanford in o<sup>r</sup> way to Dorchestr.

Att Dorchester M<sup>r</sup>. Place† who preachd y<sup>e</sup> assize sermon, reflected upon y<sup>e</sup> indulgence by Act of Parl: to Protestant dissenters, and s<sup>d</sup> y<sup>e</sup> wisdom of y<sup>e</sup> nation had giv<sup>n</sup> every man liberty to spit in y<sup>e</sup> face of y<sup>e</sup> Church, & had taken away all y<sup>e</sup> means of correcting strife & envyings in y<sup>e</sup> Church, & now, nil nisi vota supersunt, w<sup>ch</sup> seemed to import y<sup>t</sup> they (calld y<sup>e</sup> Church) had nothing now left, but onely their old eager desires [vota] of persecution. I tooke notice of y<sup>e</sup> offensiveness of this passage, both to y<sup>e</sup> Grand Jury in my charge & in my discourse wth y<sup>e</sup> Sheriff, who afterwards told me he was much troubled about it.

94

Dorset.

Bro: Powell entred 20 causes & tryed 20.

Tristram Boudage, undersheriff, a Jacobitish Tory.

98

I had great complaints by severall psons ag<sup>t</sup> one Tho: Spurway, an attorney, & he was severall times sumōn<sup>d</sup> to answ<sup>r</sup> those complaints, but appeard not, an inform<sup>r</sup> in K. J: 2 time; a pson of geñ: ill fame. On Saturday 31 Mar: ab<sup>t</sup> 5 of y<sup>e</sup> clock in y<sup>e</sup> af<sup>r</sup>noon he came to me, but then y<sup>e</sup> psons who petitiond ag<sup>t</sup> him were gone home as being impatient of staying.

Taunton, 2 Apr: 94.

99

I came from Exeter in y<sup>e</sup> morning for fear of losing o<sup>r</sup> comission, & bro: Powell stayed to try some causes y<sup>t</sup> were upon his hands but he ended them soe as he came to Taunton about 8 of y<sup>e</sup> clock att night.

We lodged at one Mr. Bird's an attorney & Towne Clerke.

On y<sup>e</sup> 21th, att night, M<sup>r</sup>. Baker came to me from y<sup>e</sup> Lords Justices to acquaint me y<sup>t</sup> S<sup>r</sup> Jo: Fenwick's arraignm<sup>t</sup> was put off till y<sup>e</sup> 23th & his triall till y<sup>e</sup> 27th, & that I must attend it.

On Wednesday y<sup>e</sup> 22th, ab<sup>t</sup> 9 att night, M<sup>r</sup> Baker came to me again from y<sup>e</sup> Lds Justices & told me y<sup>t</sup> S Jo: Fenwick's triall was put off for ten dayes, & y<sup>t</sup> I might goe into y<sup>e</sup> circuit when I pleased.

On Thursday, 23 July, I begun my journey into y<sup>e</sup> circuit, and came well to Wiccomb that night (thankes be to God).

The way was soe badd from Oxford that it was betwixt 9 & 10 a clock att night before we got to Glocest<sup>r</sup>, tho we came from Oxford ab<sup>t</sup> halfe an houre af<sup>tr</sup> 7 in y<sup>e</sup> morning.

Tho. Stephens, undersheriff.

many ingotts of silv<sup>r</sup> from melted chippings, & much clipt & badd mony, w<sup>ch</sup> I left in y<sup>e</sup> Sheriff's hands. They were weighed in Co<sup>rt</sup> by Mr. Gosley a goldsmith & estimated by him att 338 li. in value.

There were severall companys of foot soldiers of y<sup>e</sup> Marqu: of Besair's regim<sup>t</sup> (who married one of y<sup>e</sup> Lord Villers sist<sup>rs</sup>) quarterd in Glocest<sup>r</sup> which was kept in y<sup>e</sup> nature of a garrison, & every night y<sup>e</sup> military offic<sup>rs</sup> brought us y<sup>e</sup> word in y<sup>e</sup> evening, w<sup>ch</sup> was supposed to be a respect to us, as comeing wth y<sup>e</sup> King's Co<sup>m</sup>ission.

Monmouth, 30 July: 96.

137

Jo: Morgan Esq., Sheriff, a young unexpericnd gen: who came into y<sup>e</sup> office to fill up his father's year, who dyed af<sup>tr</sup> he was made Sheriff; his father (as I was told) was a rich tradesman of Aburgaveny.

I entred 11 causes & tryed 9.

Part of y<sup>e</sup> Marqu: of Besair's regim<sup>t</sup> was quarterd in this Town, & Capt. Pointz, y<sup>e</sup> cheife co<sup>m</sup>and<sup>r</sup> here, came to me to receive y<sup>e</sup> word. I told him I did suppose we were to receive y<sup>e</sup> word from them, but he told me in regard we represented y<sup>e</sup> King's p<sup>son</sup>, he was to receive y<sup>e</sup> word from us, & accordingly I gave him y<sup>e</sup> word: King William.

Hereford, 1 Aug., 96.

Very bad & shaking way from Monmouth.

Jo. Long, Esq., Sheriff, an aged gent: who had an estate fell to him lately by y<sup>e</sup> death of a relation, w<sup>ch</sup> brought upon him this office of Sheriff.

Purcell, und<sup>r</sup>sheriff.

I entred 52 causes & tryed 44.

I being tyred wth my jorny from Monm̄, my bro: Powis alone went to y<sup>e</sup> hall to read y<sup>e</sup> cōmissions, & before him there was a writ of Assize returnd, w<sup>ch</sup> was brought by Herbert Croft, gent: ag<sup>t</sup> Griffith Reynolds & W<sup>m</sup> Dobson, clerk, for y<sup>e</sup> office of Reg<sup>r</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> Deanry of Heref<sup>d</sup>, & some debate ariseing upon y<sup>e</sup> Sheriff's return my bro: Sent to me to come to him, but I sent to him to desire him to adjorn ye Assize in pticular (as well as y<sup>e</sup> Co<sup>rt</sup>) to Monday morning w<sup>ch</sup> he did accordingly.

Upon Monday Morning, 3 Aug., 96, I & my bro: Powys being both at y<sup>e</sup> Nisi Prius end, I caused y<sup>e</sup> writ of Assize to be delivered into my hand, & att y<sup>e</sup> desire of S<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup>. Williams, one of y<sup>e</sup> pts councell, I caused y<sup>e</sup> persons named in y<sup>e</sup> panell of recognitors of y<sup>e</sup> assize to be called over onely de bene esse to see if they were in Co<sup>rt</sup>, in ca: it should fall out y<sup>t</sup> there should be any occasion to use them, for it was thought they could not regularly be called, till y<sup>e</sup> ten<sup>t</sup> was called to appeare or make default, for it was disputed here whether any thing at all could be done, upon y<sup>e</sup> return w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>e</sup> Sheriff made of y<sup>e</sup> writ: w<sup>ch</sup> was y<sup>e</sup> very Same y<sup>t</sup> is in Newis & Scolastica's ca: Plo: Com: & y<sup>e</sup> oldest book of Entre's & Co. Entre's. And it was Strongly insisted upon by Serj<sup>t</sup>. Birch, Serj<sup>t</sup>. Geers, S<sup>r</sup> Frā: Wiñington & others as amici Curiae (for they would not own themselves to be of councell with y<sup>e</sup> ten<sup>ts</sup>) y<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> Co<sup>rt</sup> could not pceed contra non citatū for Suñs to answ<sup>r</sup> is de Jure naturali.

old Entr.
Co. Pntr.

And we pmitted y<sup>e</sup> pl: to arraign y<sup>e</sup> Ass. w<sup>ch</sup> was done by Grove in French. And then Assiza venit recognitura in Latine was read (onely pt of it to possess y<sup>e</sup> Co<sup>rt</sup> of it).

Then y<sup>e</sup> ten<sup>ts</sup> were called ag<sup>n</sup> & appeared & demanded oier of y<sup>e</sup> writt, & imparled specially till next morning, And then this assize was p<sup>t</sup>icularly adjornd till next morning Tuesday, att 6 of y<sup>e</sup> clock.

On Tuesday morning (4 July: 96) my bro: Powys came to me into y<sup>e</sup> Nisi Prius Co<sup>rt</sup>, & y<sup>e</sup> assize being called (w<sup>ch</sup> was adjornd de hora in horam) y<sup>e</sup> ten<sup>ts</sup> appeared, & Griffith Reynolds put in a speç dem<sup>r</sup> to y<sup>e</sup> Count, & W<sup>m</sup>. Dobson pleaded nul tort nul dissaisin. Upon y<sup>e</sup> speç. dem<sup>r</sup> we were both of opin: y<sup>t</sup> y<sup>e</sup> dem<sup>r</sup> was good, but we p<sup>n</sup>ounced noe judgm<sup>t</sup>. upon y<sup>t</sup>.

142

We being straitned in time att Hereford, my bro: Powis went towards Worcest<sup>r</sup> Wednesday morning, 5 Aug. I having then 20 causes to try, w<sup>ch</sup> I dispatchd about 4 a clock y<sup>t</sup> afternoon, but came not from Hereford till Thursday morning 6 Aug., 96, but my bro: Powis read o<sup>r</sup> co<sup>m</sup>ission att Worcest<sup>r</sup> on Wednesday night & on Thursday morning heard y<sup>e</sup> sermon, & charged y<sup>e</sup> Grand Jury (on my behalfe), and y<sup>t</sup> night I came to Worcest<sup>r</sup>, & on Friday before di<sup>n</sup>er I tryed all my prison<sup>rs</sup>, y<sup>e</sup> Goale being small.

Worces<sup>r</sup>, Wednesday, 5 Aug., 96. 143

W<sup>m</sup> Lea, Esq., Sheriff, an aged pson who is a sort of physician (as I am informed) & by his goeing from market to market wth his medicines, hath got a great estate, & for it was put into this office.

Jo. Jevon, undersheriff. Lately put out of y<sup>e</sup> Co<sup>m</sup>iss. of Peace & y<sup>e</sup> Deputy Lieutenancy (D. of Shrovsbury* being L<sup>d</sup> Lieu<sup>t</sup>). Mr. Coventry, son of y<sup>e</sup> L<sup>d</sup> Coventry, S<sup>r</sup> Jo. Packington, S<sup>r</sup> Fran: Russell, Mr. Parker, Burgess for Evesham & †

I came out of Worces<sup>r</sup> toward Stafford Saturday 8 Aug., ab<sup>t</sup> 8 in y<sup>e</sup> morning, & stayed not by y<sup>e</sup> way onely att Wolverhamptō, drunk a glass of sack in y<sup>e</sup> coach (att y<sup>e</sup> door of an Inn) given us (as is customary) by y<sup>e</sup> Constables of y<sup>e</sup> Town, & I read y<sup>e</sup> Co<sup>m</sup>iss. a little af<sup>tr</sup> 8 att night, but my bro: Powis came not in till af<sup>tr</sup> 9, & had Flambeaux's to bring him into y<sup>e</sup> Town.
